

AFGHANISTAN

USCENTCOM

FUSION CELL

SOVIET MEDICAL OPERATIONS
IN AFGHANISTAN

DATE OF DOCUMENT 10 JAN 87

88-0569-CEN-001 SG

UNITED STATES CENTRAL COMMAND
MACDILL AFB FORCE BASE, FLORIDA

FOREWORD

THOMAS A. LOKEN
COL USAF
Chief, Fusion Cell

SOVIET MEDICAL OPERATIONS IN AFGHANISTAN

INFORMATION CUTOFF DATE: 31 DECEMBER 1986

SOVIET MEDICAL OPERATIONS IN AFGHANISTAN

SUMMARY

SOVIET MILITARY MEDICAL DOCTRINE

All Soviet military medical services are directed by the Central Military Medical Directorate (Tsentralkoye Voenno-meditsinskoye Upravleniye, TsVMU) in Moscow. The TsVMU provides medical support to all branches of the armed forces. The primary stated objectives are the maintenance of the health and physical readiness of the Soviet fighting men and the treatment of wounded with the primary goal of timely return to duty.

MEDICAL OPERATIONS IN AFGHANISTAN

PAGE 2
DELETED

SOVIET DISEASE PROBLEMS AND SANITATION

PAGES 4 AND 5
DELETED

SOVIET MEDICAL SUPPLY

MEDICAL SUPPORT FOR THE AFGHAN ARMY AND CIVILIANS

PAGE 7

DELETED

CONCLUSION